

Gott spricht:
Ich schenke euch
ein neues Herz

A close-up photograph of a pair of hands gently cupping a large, fully bloomed pink rose. The rose has many layers of petals, showing a gradient from light pink to a deeper, almost red-pink at the center. The hands are positioned on either side of the rose, with fingers slightly curled to support it. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light color, possibly a white or light-colored fabric.

und lege einen
neuen Geist in euch.
