

Contents

Chapter One: Introduction — 1

- 1.1 Reception History and Christian Formation — 1
- 1.2 Surveys within New Testament Studies — 4
- 1.3 Surveys in Ancient Historical Studies — 7
- 1.4 A Database of Pauline References — 10
- 1.5 From Quantity to Quality: The Four Pericopes — 12
- 1.6 Defining References and Setting Boundaries — 18
- 1.7 Conclusion — 22

Chapter Two: 1 Corinthians 2.6–16: Wisdom leads a soul to God — 24

- 2.1 Early Christian Writers and 1 Corinthians 2 — 24
- 2.2 Rhetorical Manoeuvres & Apologetic Discourse — 28
- 2.3 Exegesis of difficult texts — 38
- 2.4 Wisdom and formation — 43
- 2.5 Conclusions — 52

Chapter Three: Ephesians 6.10–17: spiritual armour...to wage a spiritual war — 57

- 3.1 Early Christian Writers and Ephesians 6 — 57
- 3.2 Spiritual Forces of Wickedness (Eph 6.12) — 62
- 3.3 Fiery Darts of the Evil One (Eph 6.16) — 69
- 3.4 Wrestling: For our struggle is not against flesh and blood (Eph 6.12) — 74
- 3.5 Take up the whole armour of God (Eph 6.11 and 6.13) — 77
  - 3.5.1 What is the armour of God? — 78
    - Baptism — 78
    - Prayer, Faith, and Wisdom — 80
  - 3.5.2 Taking up the armour of God — 82
    - Excursus: Some Challenges — 88
- 3.6 Conclusions — 93

Chapter Four: 1 Corinthians 15.50–58: Resolve me of all ambiguities — 97

- 4.1 Early Christian Writers and 1 Corinthians 15 — 97
- 4.2 The Valentinians and their Influence — 102
- 4.3 Irenaeus of Lyons — 108
- 4.4 Tertullian — 114
- 4.5 Origen — 119

4.6 Conclusions: Resurrection, Hermeneutics, and Formation — 124

Chapter Five: Colossians 1.15–20: There was a time when he was not — 135

- 5.1 Early Christian Writers and Colossians 1 — 135
- 5.2 Christological Titles and their Implications — 138
  - 5.2.1 εἰκὼν τοῦ θεοῦ τοῦ ἀοράτου: “Image of the invisible God” — 140
  - 5.2.2 πρωτότοκος πάσης κτίσεως: “First-born of all creation” — 149
    - Excursus on Prayer of Joseph — 153
  - 5.2.3 θρόνοι εἶτε κυριότητες: “Thrones and Dominions” — 155
  - 5.2.4 ἡ κεφαλὴ τοῦ σώματος, τῆς ἐκκλησίας: “The head of the body, the Church” — 160
- 5.3 Close Connections with John 1 and Philippians 2 — 162
- 5.4 Concluding Remarks: Why Colossians 1.15–20? — 167
  - 5.4.1 Colossians 1.15–20 and the Arian Controversy — 169

Chapter Six: Conclusion — 174

Appendix: Introduction — 182

- A.1 Databases — 182
  - A.1.1 Reference (R) — 183
  - A.1.2 Possible Reference (PR) — 184
  - A.1.3 Reference Not Found (RNF) — 184

Appendix A: 1 Corinthians 2.6–16 — 186

Appendix B: Ephesians 6.10–17 — 209

Appendix C: 1 Corinthians 15.50–58 — 226

Appendix D: Colossians 1.15–20 — 238

Bibliography — 260

- B.1 Primary Sources — 260
- B.2 Reference Works — 269
- B.3 Secondary Sources — 270

Index of Ancient Sources — 289

Index of Subjects — 303