

Content

Foreword .....	9
1 Die Wissenschaft des Judentums .....	10
2 World War II and Vatican II .....	11
3 Jacob Neusner resets the agenda .....	12
4 Martin Hengel, Judentum und Hellenismus (Judaism and Hellenism) ..	12
5 The New Academy .....	13
6 Kohlhammer's Die Religionen der Menschheit .....	14
Jewish engagement(s) with Modern Culture .....	16
Joachim Schlör
1 The challenges of modernization .....	16
2 Hopes of belonging and experiences of rejection .....	21
3 From Berlin to Tel Aviv and Los Angeles: The internationalisation of Jewish modernity .....	30
4 After the Holocaust: Has modernity betrayed Jewish culture? .....	36
Halakhah (Jewish Law) in Contemporary Judaism .....	44
Elliot N. Dorff
1 Napoleon and the Functioning of Jewish Law in Enlightenment Countries .....	44
2 Jewish Legal Theories in Response to Living in Countries with Freedom of Religion .....	46
3 The Authority of Jewish Law .....	48
4 Jewish Identity: Who Is a Jew? .....	49
5 Moral Issues: Bioethics .....	52
5.1 The Beginning of Life: Generating Pregnancy .....	52
5.2 The Beginning of Life: Preventing Pregnancy .....	55
6 Moral Issues: Interpersonal Relations .....	55
7 Moral Issues: Social Justice and Environmental Ethics .....	57
8 Jewish Dietary Laws (Kashrut, or the Kosher Laws) .....	58
9 The Life Cycle .....	59
10 Marriage and Weddings .....	62
11 The Seasonal Cycle: The Sabbath, High Holy Days, and Festivals .....	65
12 A Gift of Love .....	71

Languages of the Jews . . . . .	72
Stefan Schreiner
Prolegomenon . . . . .	72
1 Mono-, Bi-, and Multilingualism . . . . .	73
2 Hebrew . . . . .	75
2.1 Ancient Hebrew . . . . .	77
2.2 Postbiblical Hebrew . . . . .	78
2.3 Rabbinic or Mishnaic Hebrew . . . . .	79
2.4 From Ancient Hebrew to Medieval, Sephardic Hebrew . . . . .	80
2.5 Ashkenazic Hebrew . . . . .	82
2.6 Israeli Hebrew . . . . .	83
3 Aramaic . . . . .	84
3.1 Imperial Aramaic . . . . .	85
3.2 Jewish-Palestinian Aramaic . . . . .	85
3.3 Christian-Palestinian Aramaic . . . . .	86
3.4 Jewish-Babylonian Aramaic . . . . .	86
3.5 Jewish neo-Aramaic dialects . . . . .	87
4 Greek . . . . .	88
5 Judeo-Arabic . . . . .	89
6 Ladino . . . . .	93
7 Yiddish . . . . .	95
7.1 The Origins of Yiddish . . . . .	95
7.2 A Language with many Dialects . . . . .	97
7.3 From Jewish-German to Yiddish . . . . .	98
7.4 The Yiddish of the Pious . . . . .	101
8 Judeo-Persian . . . . .	102
9 Conclusion . . . . .	104
 Jewish Philosophy and Thought . . . . .	 106
Ottfried Fraisse
1 The Concept of »Jewish Philosophy« . . . . .	106
2 Between Palestine and Babylon: Philosophical Potential in Traditional Literature (2 nd to 11 th cent.) . . . . .	109
3 Hellenistic Judaism: Alexandria . . . . .	110
4 Under Islam in the East: Baghdad and Kairouan . . . . .	111
5 Under Islam in the West: al-Andalus . . . . .	117
6 Under Christianity in the West: Southern France, Spain, Italy . . . . .	127
7 Ottoman Empire: Thessaloniki, Istanbul . . . . .	132
8 The Reconfiguration of »Jewish Philosophy« in the Context of Modernity: Amsterdam, Berlin Haskalah , and Wissenschaft des Judentums . . . . .	134
9 Jewish Diaspora and Israeli Thought after the Holocaust . . . . .	136
 Modern Jewish Literature . . . . .	 139
Matthias Morgenstern
1 Concept . . . . .	139

2	Pioneers and Beginnings	140
3	On »German-Jewish Literature«	141
4	Yiddish Literature	144
5	English-language Literature	145
6	Hebrew Literature	149
7	Drama	158
8	Lyric Poetry	163

Judaism, Feminism, and Gender . . . . . 169

Gwynn Kessler

1	1970s Jewish Feminism: Coming out Fighting	169
2	1980s: Toward Finding the Right Question(s)	173
3	1990s: Coming of Age: Jewish Feminism and »(En)gendering« Jewish Studies	181
	3.1 Feminist Scholarship; Gender and Jewish Studies	182
	3.2 Jewish Women's Writings: Memoirs and Midrash; Commentaries and Anthologies	189
	3.3 Bridges, Feminist Organizations and Social Justice Work	192
4	21 st Century: »New« Jewish Feminism	194
5	Conclusion	197

Judaism and inter-faith relations since World War II . . . . . 198

Norman Solomon

1	Historic overview	198
2	Jewish-Christian Dialogue	202
	2.1 Beginnings	202
	2.2 The World Council of Churches until Sigtuna (1988)	204
	2.3 Articulating a Jewish Response	206
	2.4 The Roman Catholic Church	207
	2.5 The World Council of Churches after Sigtuna (1988)	208
	2.6 Individual non-Roman Churches	209
	2.7 Orthodox Churches and the Demise of Communism	211
	2.8 Some Recent Statements	211
	2.9 Israel and Interfaith Dialogue	213
	2.10 Jewish Responses	215
3	Other Religions	217
	3.1 Dialogue with Islam	217
	3.2 Non-Abrahamic Religions	219
4	New Horizons: Scholars and Theologians	221
	4.1 Covenant Theology	222
	4.2 New Theologies: Feminism, Liberation, Creation	222
	4.3 The Global Context of Dialogue	223
	4.4 Academic Developments	225
	4.5 Dialogue Moulds Theology	226

---

5	The Popularization and Secularization of Dialogue . . . . .	227
6	Conclusion . . . . .	228
Index . . . . .		231
1	Sources . . . . .	231
	1.1 Biblical Sources . . . . .	231
	1.2 Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha . . . . .	232
	1.3 Rabbinic Sources . . . . .	232
2	Names . . . . .	232
3	Keywords . . . . .	237