

Table of Contents

I. Something more than an introduction	11
1. Roland de Vaux: from Old Testament history and exegesis to archaeology and numismatics	17
2. Coins in de Vaux's reports	29
3. Augustus Spijkerman and the coins from Khirbet Qumran and Ain Feshkha at the Studium Biblicum Franciscanum	35
3.1 From philology to numismatics	36
3.2 A hidden, unpublished and dispersed work	39
4. The hypothesis of the coin study in the 1980s–2000s	43
5. The hoard from Locus 120	59
6. The single finds from Khirbet Qumran and Ain Feshkha	87
6.1 Hoarding in Khirbet Qumran and Ain Feshkha	101
The hoard from Locus 134	101
The hoard from Locus 120	103
The hoards of Ain Feshkha and Khirbet Qumran	104
6.2 Quantitative analysis: single finds and some hypotheses	105
7. Conclusions	128
II. Khirbet Qumran: Catalogue of coin finds from the de Vaux excavations 1953–1957	131
Seleucid Coins	132
Phoenician Coins	136
Hasmonean Coins	140
Herodian Coins	154
Roman Procurators	164
Coins from the First Jewish War against Rome (66–70 CE)	176
Roman Provincial Coins	182
Roman Imperial Coins	190
Byzantine Empire	200
III. Ain Feshkha: Catalogue of monetary finds from the de Vaux excavations 1956–1958	215
Under the Ptolemies	216
Tyre Autonomous Mint	217
Hasmonean Period	218
Herodian Coins	219
Roman Procurators	222
The First Jewish War against Rome (66–70 CE)	225
The Bar Kokhba-Revolt (132–133 CE)	226
Roman Provincial Coinage	227
Roman Imperial Coinage	228
Uncertain Authority and Mint	229
Hoard	230
Catalogue of Extant Coins	232

IV. Appendices	237
1. Spijkerman Qumran single finds Dossier 1	239
2. Spijkerman Qumran single finds Dossier 2	259
3. Spijkerman Ain Feshkha single finds	265
4. Seyrig: Catalogue of the hoard found at Locus 120	268
5a. Spijkerman Hoard Tyrian Shekels I	298
5b. Spijkerman Hoard Tyrian Shekels II	307
6. Spijkerman's cards from file box (a selection)	323
 Bibliographic abbreviations	 345